Portal Link which can be Bookmark

User Name: admin

Password Field

Login Button

The diagram shows a login form with three input fields and a login button. The first input field is for the username, the second for the password, and the third for the login button. Arrows point from the labels 'User Name: admin', 'Password Field', and 'Login Button' to their respective fields. The label 'Portal Link which can be Bookmark' points to the URL 'www.abcgroupp.com' at the top of the page.
